Civil Disturbance

a. Implement appropriate emergency procedures by moving students, who may need assistance.

d. Notify University Police of the type of disturbance, its location, the number of people causing it, who is involved, any weapon presence, and your name. Provide as much information as possible.

e. Maintain a calming influence over your group. Reassure students, faculty, staff, and visitors that everything possible is being done to return the situation to a normal condition.

f. Should a gunshot be heard, get everyone on the ground immediately.
