

Program- Exchange at Roehampton

Location- London, England

Picture Location- Parliament Square in Westminster

My name is Tara Brown. In this photo I joined the "Occupy Democracy" protesters in front of the House of Parliament. They voiced their feminist outrage on the overwhelming 77% of men who make up the members of parliament (MP's) while women only make up 23%. As a senior sociology student, I have

Amber Arnold...class stat: senior French Language and Culture major studying abroad in Nantes, France.
Personal statement: This study abroad trip has thus far been a marvelous, whimsical, challenging, and life changing experience all in one. I'm so thankful to be able to witness life first hand here in France, and I hope to return with new found appreciation of the country and a new perspective on to further enhance international ties.

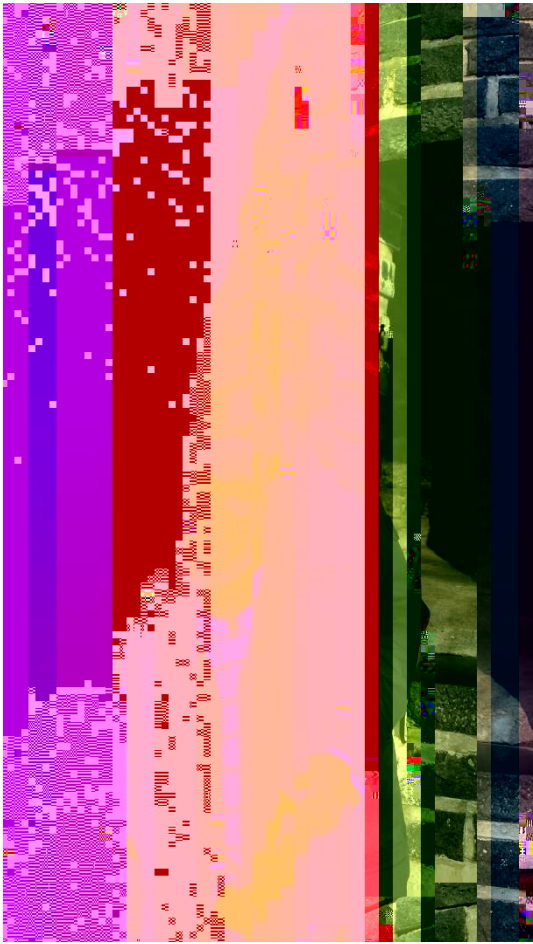

Major: French and Culture
Program- ISEP
Location- France

"Hello! My name is Beth Tate and I am currently studying abroad at the University of Roehampton in London, England. Studying abroad is such an amazing experience! I have had the opportunity and the pleasure of meeting people from every corner of the world, seeing and experiencing things I could not at home, and learning new things every day! I could not and would not wish for a better experience!"

Allie Alexander- Sophomore,

I have always wanted to travel to other countries and since I was fascinated with Asian culture and their traditions, one day the idea popped into my head. So I followed that idea until it leads me to where I am now. Exploring things that are completely different than what you are used too, especially another country, can be so enlightening. It can really open your eyes up to so many more opportunities and it also looks good on a resume.

Name: Timothy Stutzman